Headline:
Rather cloudy with quite frequent showers.

Today:
An unsettled day with quite frequent showers through the morning and afternoon, perhaps merging to longer periods of rain at times, chiefly across western districts. Westerly winds increasing fresh to strong for the afternoon. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Tonight:
Northwest winds will hold bulk of the showers across Moray, western Aberdeenshire, while the best the shelter appears around Deeside and along the east coast to the south of Aberdeen. Minimum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Tuesday:
Weather improving with showers lighter, less frequent and largely focused across the north and far east. Some in east and south staying dry with brightness increasing through the afternoon. Maximum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Wednesday, Thursday bring a mix of bright spells between scattered relatively light showers, these mainly focused across the north. Friday turning cloudy with a chance of some patchy rain later.
